

Blundell Library

June 19, 2020

Thank you so much for returning your books! We still have 544 books left to collect, so please continue to bring back any books you still have at home. There is a bin outside the blacktop entrance for Blundell library books.

The Richmond Public Library is doing a virtual Summer Reading Club and Teen Club this summer. Registration begin on June 24, 2020 for both.

You can use any online books that you read or any of your own books in print. You can use graphic novels and information books. Do sign up and enjoy reading this summer!

BC Summer Reading Club
HOW TO REGISTER ONLINE
in 3 simple steps

STEP 1
Visit bcsrc.ca and click "JOIN HERE" and you'll see this page.

STEP 2
Grab your grown up to help you join. Do you have a sibling? Your grown up can sign you all up at once.

STEP 3
Create your user name and get ready to read and explore the universe.

Visit bcsrc.ca for cool activities to do at home and remember to check with your local library to see what's happening this summer.

BC Summer Reading Club
WHAT TO DO AFTER YOU SIGN UP
in 3 simple steps

STEP 1
Set up your weekly reading goals.

STEP 2
Earn online badges after you complete your weekly goals.

STEP 3
After 7 weeks of reading and meeting your goals, contact your local library on how to pick up your 2020 BC SRC Medal.

Visit bcsrc.ca for cool activities to do at home and remember to check with your local library to see what's happening this summer.

2020 BC Summer Reading Club!

BC Summer Reading Club is FREE and FUN at Richmond Public Library!

Join in the fun this summer as we blast off with the 2020 BC Summer Reading Club theme: Explore our Universe! The annual Summer Reading Club is a great way for children to maintain or improve their reading skills and have fun reading, either together with their family or on their own.

Who can join?

Summer Reading Club is for kids of all ages. Everyone is welcome to join!

How does it work?

- Register online starting June 24 at www.bcsrc.ca
- Start reading books on your own or with help from someone—you can read print or ebooks
- Track your reading progress to earn virtual badges
- Complete all of the weekly reading challenges to qualify for a medal at the end of the summer!

Richmond Public Library will also be hosting a variety of online programs and events this summer. For more details visit the library's website, check out our online events calendar, or call us at 604-231-6413.

Teen Summer Reading Club with the Richmond Public Library

Teen Summer Reading Club

Teen Summer Reading Club is FREE and FUN at Richmond Public Library!

Teens! Starting June 24, you can join Richmond Public Library's online Teen Summer Reading Club and make reading a fun part of your summer. Write and post book reviews on our blog and enter our design contest for next year's teen summer reading theme for a chance to win some great book prizes.

Who can join?

The Teen Summer Reading Club is for all teens ages 12-18.

How does it work?

- Send us an email to teenblog@yourlibrary.ca. You will receive additional information on how to post reviews on the blog.
- Start reading books and post short reviews (2-4 sentences) — you can read and review print or ebooks
- Every review you submit will be entered into our weekly prize draw for a chance to win a prize.

The library will also be hosting a variety of online programs and events this summer, including virtual Escape Rooms and Kahoot trivia challenges.

For more details visit the library's website, check out our online events calendar, or call us at 604-231-6413.

Book Recommendations

For older students: Currently in our Destiny ebooks:

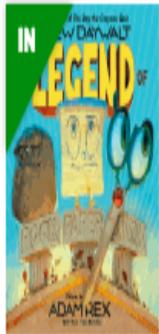

Rhyme schemer

K.A. Holt.

A novel in verse about Kevin's journey from bully to being bullied, as he learns about friendship, family, and his talent for poetry.

1 of 1 available

For younger students: Currently in our Destiny ebooks:

The legend of rock paper scissors

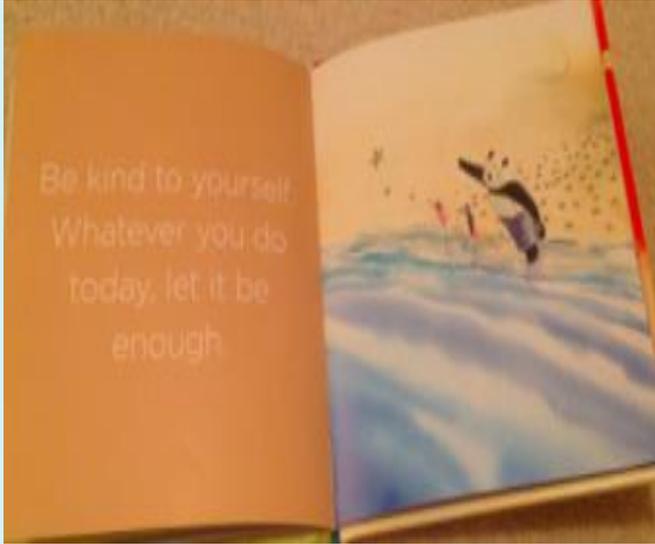

Drew Daywalt ; Adam Rex.

Tells a humorous story of how the rock, paper, and scissors found each other and formed a battle game.

1 of 1 available

How to access eBooks or Audiobooks to read the book recommendations:

Go to destiny.sd38.bc.ca. Click on Blundell, then catalog. Scroll down to eBooks or Audiobooks. Click on the book, then log in using our username (38blund) and password (oval). For more books, scroll right to the end of the ribbon and click on See All.

Zen Happiness by Jon J. Muth

Be kind to yourself.
Whatever you do
today, let it be enough.

This is a painting that I painted to show my inner landscape. I call it the "Path Inside". It's an abstract painting about my own road to happiness. What makes me happy inside? What do I notice about what I do that makes me happy? What four directions or what areas in my life lead to my happiness. A tree can symbolize my family. A second tree, the love of my work as a Teacher-Librarian. A third tree, friends and a fourth tree, painting, walking in nature, reading, and yoga (some of the activities that I enjoy).

What makes you happy inside?
It doesn't need to cost money.
It can be making a friend, reading a story with a parent, playing with a sibling, eating a meal with your family, drawing, building, and watching a family movie, for example.

Try sketching and colouring what makes you happy inside.
Send me your picture to jcramer@sd38.bc.ca
Have a happy day.